Description

Sturdy, seaworthy trawler in sedan version built by the French quality brand RHEA Marine. The RHEA Trawler 36 Sedan has a modern hull design with very sharp entry, large propeller tunnels and a wide stern section. She offers the good rough-water handling typical of a trawler, but also reaches top speeds of approx. 20 knots. Wide, unobstructed side decks with high bulwark, the stable position in the water and the protected cockpit make the RHEA 36 a safe, reliable vessel for all weather conditions. Classic, angular and characteristic lines. The friendly saloon, a spacious owner's cabin with island double berth forward and a further double lateral cabin to starboard provide ample comfort and living space for a crew of up to five passengers during extendes cruises.This RHEA 36 is a little-used, well-maintained vessel built in 2014 offered by her first owner (only approx. 503 engine hours). Exclusive teak interior and teak decking on lower side decks and cockpit floor. Extensive specification incl. bow and stern thrusters, two sliding hatches in roof above the steering position, wide folding swim platform, diesel heating and additional engine heating etc. Hull in "Navy Blue" with stripes in Ivory. The asking price is quoted incl. 19 % VAT. Nevertheless VAT can still be deducted so the yacht can be exported excl. tax.
